

Norfolk/Newport News Courtesy Copy and Other Division-Specific Information

Overview

This document gives information about what the Norfolk/Newport News judges require in terms of courtesy copies of documents filed electronically.

Note: These courtesy copy rules apply only to documents filed in electronic cases. Follow the previous practices for each chambers for courtesy copies in paper cases.

This document also lists the documents that may be filed in open court in Norfolk in both civil and criminal cases.

Courtesy Copies

Courtesy copies should be delivered as follows:

- Within one business day of the electronic filing.
- To the Clerk’s Office. Ideally, courtesy copies should not be in envelopes, but if an envelope is necessary, the envelope should be unsealed and labeled with the judge’s name and as containing a courtesy copy.
