

Electronic Filing and Service of Documents

Filing Documents That Require Leave of Court

If the filing of an electronically submitted document requires leave of Court, such as an amended complaint, filing users should attach the proposed document to the motion requesting leave to file. If the Court grants the motion, the filing user should then electronically file the document.
