

From: zuluman tangotango <pilotz123@hotmail.com>
To: airman@telepath.com <airman@telepath.com>
Date: Sunday, October 22, 2000 5:53 AM
Subject: Re: flight training

Hello, Mrs Brenda, sorry it is me again today.
 I just want a last clarification, because I was just go through the Email you send me on 29 sept concerning the cost of the training.
 I know that you have been very precise, but you know it is like for assurance contract you "fear" the small print, So could you tell again what do you mean exactly by "guaranty" fee, here I just want to know that if I do the training then I go to take the exam and I fell (hopefully I will not happen) do I have to pay anything to your school in order to get more training? Also could you tell me, if this happen, the extra lesson will be given in the same intensive manners that the initial training. You will understand that being from overseas, I will not like to have to wait in order to get extra training if I need it. I will be very grateful if you could be very precise regarding this question, for example could you give me a kind of timetable of what happen if you fail (hopefully I will not fail, actually I do not recall to have fail school exam)
 So Mrs Brenda I thank you in advance for your understanding and fly you later.
 Bye,bye

9/29/00

>From: Brenda Whitehead <airman@telepath.com>
 >To: pilotz123@hotmail.com
 >Subject: flight training
 >Date: Fri, 29 Sep 2000 12:48:39 -0500

>
 >Concerning the payment you will need to pay at least 1/3 of the course cost when you arrive, 1/3 in 30 days and the balance in 30 days after that.

>
 >You have trained international students since we began our business in 1986. Approximately 60% of our students are from various countries.

>
 >All of our instructors stay with us until they leave for the airlines, so yes we have numerous people working in the airline industry.

>
 >
 >
 >
 >

>September 29, 2000

>
 >Dear Prospective Student:

>
 >Thank you for inquiring about flight training with Airman Flight School for

GOVERNMENT EXHIBIT

OK00511 (ID)
 01-455-A