Eastern District of Virginia

The United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia is part of the judicial branch of the federal government. There are 94 U.S. District Courts in the country with at least one in every state and in all U.S. territories.

Virginia is bifurcated geographically and consists of two Districts - the Eastern District and the Western District. The Eastern District of Virginia has four divisions: Alexandria, Norfolk, Newport News, and Richmond. There are approximately 6.5 million residents within the Eastern District of Virginia's jurisdiction. Federal courts hear cases involving the constitutionality of laws, of laws, disputes between states, and criminal cases originating from various federal agencies with law enforcement authority.

ABOUT THE JOB

The Courtroom Deputy to a U.S. District Judge/Case Manager position is located in the Norfolk Division Clerk's Office of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia. The incumbent manages the court docket, performs full courtroom duties, prepares orders and judgments, and processes all court-related documents. The incumbent also performs the functions of a case manager within the Clerk's Office.

QUALIFICATIONS

Required Qualifications

A minimum of two years of progressively responsible experience related to the processing of legal documents and monitoring legal procedures, use of specialized terminology, and demonstrated ability to apply a body of rules, regulations, directives, or laws. Successful candidates should have demonstrated experience with case management, knowledge of federal and local rules, and the ability to perform quality control. Such experience is commonly encountered in law offices, federal courts, or other courts in the judicial system. Federal judiciary experience is preferred. Experience with hosting and organizing remote video and telephonic meetings via Microsoft Teams and ZOOM are highly desirable.
